

Tassels, sword knots and pompoms – a new trend and one that gives the Kashmir collection a whole new fantastic look. Finely crafted, playful chain bundles lend the collection added glamour and elegance. One of our highlights at Baselworld 2015.

The soft-look, freely-moving tassels appear to conflict with the clear-cut, modern Kashmir design. This is the very concept of the collection: contradictions that are in harmony, that complement each other and that can be beautifully combined. Sporty, elegant and perfect for every occasion. The versatility of the Kashmir collection is one of the reasons for its success.

New XL rings, necklaces and earrings with tassels - Kashmir is and remains modern and in vogue. Identifying relevant trends and honing them to create something lasting, unique and perfect. Jewellery of today.
