

Charmingly discreet jewellery that nevertheless stands out – the Rivière collection has shown how in-demand that is. We are taking this idea to the next level with the new Rivière Sport range. Casual, sporty and pleasantly uncomplicated.

Everyday jewellery - companions for every day and every occasion. These are the new favourite pieces of jewellery.

Rings with openings underneath are not only on trend. They fit any finger and remain comfortable to wear in any situation. A functional design element.

The bracelets can be simply slipped on, so the internal spring remains hidden. With perfectly polished stones mounted girdle to girdle in top quality, the pave setting exudes excellence.

Quality and value right down to the last detail.
