

Stretch it!

Stretch it! Suits on any finger.

The adjustability and comfort of the rings is self-evident. However, underlying this is a complicated mechanism.

The internal spring is invisible. It keeps the individual cups together securely and stably. Slipping and twisting is not possible. Rivière Stretch! are rings for every occasion.

Stretch it. Feel it. Enjoy it.

Jewellery should be versatile. Our answer is the freedom to wear the same ring on each finger. They fit perfectly and are just as flexible as the Rivière sports bracelets.
